

TROOP HISTORIAN

1. Keep a journal (scrapbook) of Troop events for historical purposes. Include trip write-ups, photographs, newsletters and maps when possible. Such a journal may be used by Scouts in future years to look back and know what kinds of things the Troop was doing. It can also be used for recruiting new Scouts.
2. Maintain a Troop slide show for showing at the annual Troop Dinner and to Cub Scout Packs. Obtain slides from recent trips to keep the slide show current, removing slides from older trips and returning them to their owners.
3. Maintain Troop bulletin board, keeping it neat and up-to-date.
4. Take care of Troop trophies, ribbons, and other awards.
5. Be responsible for obtaining photographs / slides of Troop activities.
6. Set a good example, especially in behavior, attendance and leadership. Attend at least 75% of all meetings and 50% of all campouts during my term of office.
7. Enthusiastically wear the uniform correctly as instructed.
8. Live by the Scout Oath and Law.

As Troop Historian, I promise to do my best to fulfill the requirements of this position throughout the coming period. I understand that the ASPL and the adult leaders on the basis of my abilities and the job description given above, as well as the demonstration of Scout Spirit and leadership at Troop meetings and other events will evaluate my performance in this position. As a parent, I will support my son in fulfilling these requirements for this leadership position.
